

FARM TO SCHOOL LOCAL PROCESSED PRICE GUIDE

Below are estimated average yearly and monthly, prices of processed products for K-12 school districts in Washington State. Actual sale prices fluctuate by vendor, product, and school district budget. Price ranges below are intended as guideposts for general planning purposes only. Figures below do not reflect actual sale prices, and are averaged from a variety of sources.

Market prices are an average of high range and low range prices from a variety of sources school districts are potentially buying from currently.

Sources: USDA Pilot Project for Unprocessed Fruits & Vegetables Invoice Reports, USDA Agricultural Marketing Service Market News, WSDA FSMIP School Survey 2016

School Budget prices are based on high range and average school budgets per single fruit or vegetable servings at various school districts in Washington.

Sources: WSDA Farm to School Survey 2016, NSLP Produce Buying Guide

Local or Organic prices are based on locally sourced or organic products from Washington State suppliers and national prices.

Sources: USDA Agricultural Marketing Service Local & Regional Food Market News, Whatcom Farm to School, WSDA FSMIP School Survey 2016

